THE TWO LOYALTIES.

SIR,—It is a blessing and a delight to hear a word from somebody capable of distinguishing between loyalty to a country and loyalty to its officeholders, and any one who has the gizzard to speak it deserves all we can give him. I hope you are going on and pioneer a way for intelligent and self-respecting Americanism.

NEW YORK CITY.

ALBERT JAY NOCK.

THE THOUGHT OF MANY

SIR,—I wish you would convey to Colonel Harvey for me my personal thanks for his editorial in THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW for December and January on Colonel House's commission. He expressed in those editorials the thought of a very large number of our citizens.

CHICAGO, ILL.

HARRY OLSON.

A MUCH-NEEDED WORK

SIR,—On reading your latest editorial I am moved to write you. It is a great, and, in my judgment, a much needed piece of work. My chief knowledge of yourself comes from the monthly visits to my library of THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW. I have written you simply because the mood is on.

NEW YORK CITY.

GEORGE P. MAINS.

HITTING THE SPOT

SIR,—Your editorials in the January number, particularly as to the services of Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Root, and Chief Justice White, hit the right spot. Keep it up until some of the powers that be realize that we are at war and that the lives of some of our young men may possibly be saved if proper and timely preparation is made.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

FRANK R. HUBACHEK.

SERVICE

SIR,—I have read your "Thank God for Wilson" and others, and want to offer my appreciation for all of them. I am sorry that our men in charge do not use the great force and personal popularity of Mr. Roosevelt. We need everything to win the great war.

I like your splendid service.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

J. W. JAMIESON.
